Regulations based on the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (“OECD”) Common Reporting Standard (“CRS”) require financial institutions to collect and report certain required information based on an account holder’s tax residence. Each jurisdiction has its own rules for defining tax residence. In general, tax residence is the country in which you live. Special circumstances (such as studying abroad, working overseas, or extended travel) may cause you to be resident elsewhere or resident in more than one country at the same time (multiple residency). For more information on tax residence, please consult your tax adviser or the information at the following OECD Automatic Exchange of Financial Account Information (“AEOI”) link: <http://www.oecd.org/tax/automatic-exchange/crs-implementation-and-assistance/>

The Company must comply with the following requirements of the Inland Revenue Ordinance to facilitate the Inland Revenue Department of Hong Kong automatically exchanging certain financial account information as provided for thereunder:

(i) to identify certain accounts as “non-excluded financial accounts” (“NEFAs”); (ii) to identify the jurisdiction(s) in which NEFA-holding individuals and certain NEFA-holding entities reside for tax purposes; (iii) to determine the status of certain NEFA-holding entities as “passive NFEs” and identify the jurisdiction(s) in which their “controlling persons” reside for tax purposes; (iv) to collect certain information on NEFAs (“Required Information”); and (v) to furnish certain Required Information to the Inland Revenue Department of Hong Kong (collectively, the “AEOI requirements”).

The Claimant agrees to comply with requests made by the Company to comply with the AEOI requirements
